THIS MONTH'S FOCUS – Walking with God

And So the Story Goes....

Avis B. Christensen (1895-1985) was encouraged by her grandmother to write poetry. She wrote her first poem at the age of ten. It is said that she actually wrote thousands of poems during her lifetime. Then one Sunday morning in church she listened to a new song by Harry Loes. The Lord reminded her that the talent entrusted to her belonged to Him. Her immediate longing to express His love and blessing resulted in 19 gospel songs being written, including "It Is Glory Just To Walk With Him":

*It is glory just to walk with Him whose blood has ransomed me;
It is rapture for my soul each day.*

It is joy divine to feel Him near where'er my path may be.

Bless the Lord, it's glory all the way!

*It is glory just to walk with Him. It is glory just to walk with Him.
He will guide my steps aright, Thro' the vale and o'er the height.
It is glory just to walk with Him.*

They Said It:

How do we strengthen our friendship with God? How do we walk with Him every day? We do it the same way we strengthen our relationship with a friend, or with our spouse: we spend time with them—talking and listening to each other, sharing our concerns and joys, even helping and encouraging each other. In other words, we "walk" with them, enjoying their company and sharing our lives.

"Walking with God down the avenue of prayer we acquire something of His likeness, and unconsciously we become witnesses to others of His beauty and His grace."

– Edward McKendree Bounds

"Our great tendency in this age is to increase our speed, to run faster, even in the Christian life. In the process our walk with God stays shallow, and our tank runs low on fumes. Intimacy offers a full tank of fuel that can only be found by pulling up closer to God, which requires taking necessary time and going to the effort to make that happen."

– Charles R. Swindoll

"The Bible reveals the Father's overall plan for the world and provides general guidelines for life. But how can we know His specific plans for us? Listening to God is essential to walking with God." – Charles Stanley
